Winner—Blk. c. by Hanover—Aurania. Went to post at 2:45. At post 12 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Hammock, always a good horse at this distance, finished strongly and was favored by the soft going. Barbara Frietchie was probably best but got off badly and was worse ridden being shut off and interfered with throughout, but finished fast. Satire was given a lucky start and showed a fine burst of speed but tired and could not last the route. Eloim closed a tremendous gap and should be watched. Oliver Mc went well today. Scotch Bush quit again at the end.

Scratched—27509 Goebel, 107; 27509 Blarneystone, 107; 27507 Ringleader, 106; 27470 Sweet Tooth, 104; 27507 Bard of Avon, 103; 27507 Venturo, 100; 27508 Great American, 95.

Winner—Ch. c. by Bathampton—Agnes Flash. Went to post at 3:20. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won in a canter; second easily. Roehampton waited on the pacemakers to the far turn, where he ran past them as if they were tied. He was much the best, although Imp had very little chance to do her best with her inferior jockey. She was probably not fully extended at any part of the journey. The Rhymer beat the tiring Sweet Lavender through the stretch. The latter was under restraint for three-quarters and if placed in sprint races would give a good account of herself.

Scratched—(27529) Isidor, 116; 27590 Bellario, 106; 27564 Alsike, 108; 27508 Louisville, 101.

Winner—B. g. by Star Ruby—Baby. Went to post at 3:45. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Honolulu, perfectly handled, was probably best today, but Anak will reverse this running when they meet again. Anak finished with a sensational rush and is a coming good one. Shandonfield finished strongly and made up a lot of ground. Cassville is fast for a half.

Scratched—26127 James P. Keating, 116; 26660 Eddie Busch, 105.

Overweights—Cats Paw, 1 pound.

Winner—B. g. by Candlemas—Flibbertigibbet. Went to post at 4:15. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Kinikinnick was favored by the soft going and his weight sat lightly on him and he ran one of his good races. The Amazon put up a fast and game effort. Trigger finished strongly and is very good and likes a long route. Specific ran badly. Agnes D. was slightly outclassed at the distance.

Scratched—(27660) Hammock, 93.

Kinikinnick, show, 1 to 4. The Amazon, show, 2 to 5. Trigger, show, 2 to 1. Specific, show, 1 to 4.

Winner—B. f. by St. Leonards—Elsie.

Went to post at 4:40. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Elsie L. was best and will do better on a harder and faster track. Keynote finished strongly, after having made up much ground. Oclawaha did his best and is only fair. Dark Secret ran a very poor race. He acts as if a sulker in the first part of his races and probably will do well in a longer race. Montana Pioneer showed speed, but quit badly.

Scratched—27566 High Carnival, 99.

Overweights—Connecticut, 1 pound.

Elsie L., show, out. Keynote, show, 1 to 3. Oclawaha, show, 7 to 5.

Winner—B. f. by Ben Strome—The Humber. Went to post at 2:30. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Northumbria, off flying, revealed in the sloppy going. She spreadeagled her field the first quarter but was tiring fast at the finish. Elbe was in a jam to the head of the stretch but came like a shot when she got clear sailing. With better racing luck she would have won. Jim Nap had no mishaps and was beaten on his merits. Those behind the first three were occupied in escaping the flying mud and did not try very hard to win.

Overweights—Northumbria, 14 pounds; Elbe, 3; Vituria, 24; Myrtle Van, 2; Triune, 2; Troubeam, 2.

Winner—B. c. by Simon Magnus—Preference.

Went to post at 3:00. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won under a pull; second easily. Henry Zitt made a show of his field. He was at home in the going and showed abundance of speed. Newton W. had no difficulty in capturing second place. All Gray was outrun in the first part of the race and saved ground on the stretch turn. Wakita and Herodes evidently do not like the mud, as they seemed to be unable to extend themselves.

No show betting.

Winner—B. c. by Esher—Clarissa.

Went to post at 3:28. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. George W. Jenkins is a greatly improved horse. He fences better with every race and is easily the best jumper now quartered here. When his rider was ready he passed the two choices without much of an effort. Jim Megibben showed more speed than Coley and outfooted him from a half mile from the finish. Coley did not appear to do what he is capable of. Eleanor Holmes may be a jumper in time, but she was very awkward today. Don Clarence is a wreck and Little Ben is a joke.

MR. JERSEY DEAD.

SARATOGA, N. Y., August 20.—J. E. Seagram's good four-year-old colt, Mr. Jersey, died yesterday at the track from inflammation of the bowels.

A race for exclusively Futurity eligibles at 5 1/2 furlongs will be substituted for the fifth race as on the program next Friday. It will be $50 each and $1,000 added.

The Parader worked for the first time since his lameness and went a mile in 1:45 after the races today and is seemingly all right.

CALIFORNIA JOCKEY CLUB STAKES.

That the summer racing season of 1901 is waning rapidly is brought in evidence by the stake advertisement of the New California Jockey Club printed in this issue. Here are proposals for two sets of stakes of generous values, the first set to close for entries September 16 and the second November 4. Of course there is plentiful supply of good money to be captured in the middle west before it will be in order for owners to ship their horses to the scene of winter racing at either San Francisco or New Orleans, but in the interim owners will do well to secure a set of entry blanks and study how well the conditions of these important stakes will suit the capacities of their various horses. The list calling for the most immediate consideration, that which closes September 16, is as follows:

The Opening Handicap, 3-year-olds and upward, value $1,500, 1 mile.

The Produce Exchange Stakes, 2-year-olds, value $1,500, 3/4 mile.

The Golden Gate Stakes, 3-year-olds and upward, value $1,500, 7/8 mile.

The Crocker Handicap, 2 and 3-year-olds, value $1,500, 6 1/2 furlongs.

The Thanksgiving Handicap, 3-year-olds and upward, value $2,500, 1 1/8 miles.

The Burlingame Selling Stakes, 3-year-olds and upward, value $1,500, 1 1/8 miles.

The Trux. Beale Handicap, 3-year-olds and upward, value $1,500, 1 mile.

The Junior Stakes, 2-year-olds, value $1,500, 7/8 mile.

The Christmas Handicap, 3-year-olds and upward, value $3,000, 1 1/4 miles.

The New Year Handicap, 2-year-olds and upward, value $2,000, 1 mile.

It should be noted that the foregoing stakes will all be run prior to January 1, 1902. The Jockey Club gives assurance that many over night special purses ranging in value from $500 to $1,000 will be offered as the racing season progresses.

Winner—Ch. g, by De Beauvoir—Emma Louise.

Went to post at 2:35. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily after a short early drive. The Four Hundred ran an easy and lazy race. He had to be well shaken up and driven to get him going in the stretch. He does not seem to fancy weight. Little Scout, slow to begin, came the long way and ran a fair race, closing strong. Stella Perkins raced fast and seemed to be going easily to the stretch, then gave it up. She was probably short.

Winner—Br. h, by Eolus—Brown Beauty.

Went to post at 3:07. At post 19 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second easily. Braw Lad was cleverly ridden, taken out of the deep dust at the post and well handled at the finish. Fleuron was impotently ridden at the end. She would have made it closer with a good ride. Greetings was tangled up at the start and slow to get into her stride. She made up ground when she extended herself. Oscar, heavily played as a good thing, had no excuses. He stopped as if short. The last pair were never contenders.

Little Lois made up a lot of ground under a poor ride. Ducla was jammed among the older horses at the start and thrown out of it. The last three never were serious contenders.

Miss Conrad, show, evens. Myra Morella, show, evens. Little Lois, show, 3 to 2. Ducla, show, out. Princess Otilie, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—Ch. c, by Iroquois—Hildegard.

Went to post at 4:15. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second all out. El Caney is in rare form, assumed the lead at the start and galloped in front all the way. Chorus Boy is not in his best form and stopped at the mile. Nettie Regent was very poorly ridden. She was jerked along at an uneven pace, allowed to drop out at the three-eighths, then came strong in the stretch. She should have been an easy second.

Scratched—27437 Love's Labor, 107.

Winner—Ch. c, by Sleipner—Nellie G.

Went to post at 4:42. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Hylo was primed for the race and won it all the way. Dan Paxton ran a much improved race over her last one. Monos lacked the speed to keep up in the early part of the race, but closed strong. Impromptu made a strong bid at the stretch entry, but stopped when the pinch came.

About was easily the best of the others. Audie ran a fair race considering that she does not do her best in the mud. Princess Strathmore showed early speed. The rest were never contenders.

If You Dare closed with determination and got up in time to nip Goal Runner on the post. The latter ran a dull race and was stopping badly at the end. Little Duches II. ran a good race and will bear watching, especially in the soft going. Pupil met with early interference and had little chance thereafter.

 Went to post at 3:56. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won cantering; second easily. The soft going favored Toluca's bad leg and she lost her rheumatism suddenly and made a show of her field after a half had been negotiated. The Gezer was easily the best of the others in this kind of going. He showed plenty of speed and had no trouble in holding second place. Bimtime likes the mud, but was worn out in running from last to third position in the first quarter. Little Land closed a big gap. Neither Jim Gore II. nor Raveling could run well in the slush.

 Went to post at 4:24. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won ridden out; second the same. Balm of Gilead ran like a fair colt and was also ridden with judgment. Boland kept out of the way of the flying mud and skinned the rail at the stretch turn, while all the others went wide. He was forced to a drive, however, to stall off Axares. The latter lost some ground on the last turn, but could hardly have caught the winner. Six Bits showed early speed, but gave it up in the stretch. Jennie Day finished stontly. My Sunny South is evidently not a mud runner. The same can be said of Marie Tryon, who displayed but little speed. Miss Bernice was standing flat-footed when the flag fell.

MUDDY AT HAWTHORNE.

Dearth of sunshine made the track at Hawthorne yesterday somewhat more holding and sticky than it was the day before, and mud larks were very much in evidence again. The sport was very tame throughout, all of the races being taken by big margins.

The feature event of the day was the fourth race, a handicap purse of $700 at one mile. Hernando on the strength of his last few races was made a decided favorite, but the best he could do was to run second, the winner turning up in Vulcaia well backed at 3 to 1. Lady Strathmore went to the front at flag fall and opened a gap of two lengths in the first quarter with Vulcaia two in front of Maggie Davis with Hernando bringing up the rear. Vulcaia was simply buck jumping going down the backstretch and could have gone into the lead whenever called upon. Lady Strathmore had enough after passing beyond the half and began to fall back. Sullivan then shot Vulcaia to the front and he easily remained there to the end, winning by two lengths while Hernando beat Silurian one length for second place. Hernando did not appear to take kindly to the going but ran a fair race at that and finished rather strongly, beating Silurian handily at the end after a spirited hook up in the last eighth. Lady Strathmore quit badly when coming down the last quarter, finishing many lengths back of the winner. Maggie Davis only showed speed for a half mile.

Malay had to be hustled out in the third race to beat Trinity Bell, which held a commanding lead over him up to the final eighth, where she began to grow leg weary. She led at this point by three lengths, but Gormley foolishly had taken the worst going, next to the inside rail, instead of swinging to the center of the track. Malay, picking the best going down the final quarter, got up to her in the final hundred yards and beat her rather easily to the wire by two lengths, while she beat Strangest six for second position. Bangle showed speed for a half mile and then died away. He is nowhere near a good race.

Muresca made a runaway affair of the first race leading by fifteen lengths when turning for home. Even with Ranch pulling her up in the final eighth she won by six lengths with Pyrro six lengths in front of Harry Wilson. Pyrro was badly outrun in the first part of the dash but closed strongly in the last sixteenth. Harry Wilson's race was hardly up to the mark and he was outrun for the entire journey. Has Gift ran well for a half mile. The others were beaten off all the way.

School for Scandal was thrown into the second race and won as the betting indicated she should win. She led from start to finish and passed under the wire six lengths before

About which beat Andie the same distance for second place. These three were the only contenders through the entire seven furlongs.

The fifth race went to Educate. Favored with a running start and light impost she simply ran away from her field and won easily by four lengths. The struggle for second place was exciting. If You Dare getting up just in time to nip Goal Runner on the post. The latter ran far below expectations and was very tired at the end. If You Dare finished with a fine rush. Little Duchess II. ran a fair race and is ready to win in the same kind of going when placed right.

Old Oxnard took the last race in rather an easy fashion after a short tilt with Prairie Dog in the last eighth. He won by two lengths, while Prairie Dog finished six in front of George Lee for second place. The last-named came with a rush from nowhere and will about do soon when going over a route in the same kind of going. Banish, the favorite, ran well to the stretch and then quit badly.

Prince Poniatowski at once will ship east to Saratoga and Sheepshead Bay Brutal and Ishtar.

Seven of the Burns & Waterhouse string will be shipped to California to rest up, Scotch Plaid, Doreen and Eddie Jones being in the list.

T. H. Williams, Jr., passed through last night. Labor Day will be the opening day of Harlem's next meeting.
